

The Ramones, Chasing The Night

Standing here in front of the mirror
Its going to be alright tonight
Feelin hot yeah im on fire
Im never eer going to tire

Tonight its gonna be alright
Chasing the night
Its gonna be alright
Chasing the night
Chasing, CHasing the night
Its going to be alright

Live my life as i choose
I paid the price, paid my dues
You know i need no alibi
Daytime troubels fading
Nights intoxicating
Gonna have it all tonight
That aint no lie

Tonight its gonna be alright
Chasing the night
Its gonna be alright
Chasing the night
Chasing, Chasing the night
Its goin to be alright

Rock all night, sleep all day
It dont matter what they say
Aint never gonna cahnge my ways and
I wont be back till monday

Feeling exasperating
Excitement generating
Im never gonna tire
City overloading
The circuits are exploding
Aint coming down no, im to wierd.
