

The Raveonettes, With My Eyes Closed

I close my eyes
to hurt you
to live you
i never told you
that i
could stay
it was never meant to
be
for me
everyone surely will tell you
that i will
need you
but i don't believe you
cause i've never had it
the way im
supposed to
believe me when i say
for me
that i will
need you
i close my eyes
to live you
i've never told you
that i
could stay
for me
