

The Red Jumpsuit Apparatus, Pull Me Back

There's lots of crazy, crazy things
This world will offer you
And there's no way to fake
What you've been through
So just hold on to what you know is true
Pull me back again
I need you to
Hold me from my sin
Hold me back again
I need you to
Pull me from my sin
Before I give in
At times it seems
There's nowhere left to turn... It's true
I'd like to think that
We could help each other rise above
The things we're going through
Pull me back again
I need you to
Hold me from my sin
Hold me back again
I need you to
Pull me from my sin
Before I give in
Pull me back again
I need you to
Hold me from my sin
Hold me back again
I need you to
Pull me from my sin
Before I give in
Pull me back again
Before I give in
Pull me back again
Before I give in
