

The Regrettes, Anxieties (Out Of Time)

I can hear the sirens when my visions blurry and my eyes won't stay dry cus my thoughts will hurt r knock me down down up back down knock me down I won't back down

I can feel their anger I can't run much longer, feel the faults they rage out, ones in the vaults they'll
Do you feel it comin, you won't see it comin

All of these anxieties come over me just let me breathe
Are we just forever runnin out of time
Missin how it feels to really be alive
Knock me down down up back down knock me down I won't back down

I can see the silence and it's comin towards me but my body weighs down and my mind is burning
Knock me down down up back down knock me down I won't back down
Do you feel it comin, you won't see it comin

All of these anxieties come over me just let me breathe
Are we just forever runnin out of time
Missin how it feels to really be alive
Knock me down down up back down knock me down I won't back down

What can I what can I do
Can somebody give me a damn clue
Fear on my body like glue
Can't move I can't move I can't move
What can I what i say
Tellin myself that I'm ok
Colors come after the rain
Knock me down I won't back down

All of these anxieties come over me just let me breathe
Are we just forever runnin out of time
Missin how it feels to really be alive
Knock me down down up back down knock me down I won't back down
