

The Regrettes, Homesick

Selfish hurries are you seein thru
That I can't remember how to feel you
Fetishizing the thought of you lying
I don't mean it when I say to keep driving

So please just
Come on make it quick I'm getting homesick
Sleepin in your jeans but you're only in my dreams
Don't wanna stay awake just wanna get back to you
I'll see you when I fall asleep
Sun is coming in I wanna feel your skin
Kiss me till I drown fuck I want it right now
Don't wanna stay awake just wanna get back to you
I'll see you when I fall asleep

Sunburns, landslides, till I'm shaking from my existential thoughts, I fake strong
Lover hold me till I'm freezing up in the mornin
But when I have to say goodbye skip the warnin

So please just
Come on make it quick I'm getting homesick
Sleepin in your jeans but you're only in my dreams
Don't wanna stay awake just wanna get back to you
I'll see you when I fall asleep
Sun is coming in I wanna feel your skin
Kiss me till I drown fuck I want it right now
Don't wanna stay awake just wanna get back to you
I'll see you when I fall asleep

Will you miss me when you wake up
Watching me paint on my makeup in the mirror
Can't think about it, it's a dead rush
Does a piece of you believe our end is near
Keep sinking deeper just let me sleep oh

Come on make it quick I'm getting homesick
Sleepin in your jeans but you're only in my dreams
Don't wanna stay awake just wanna get back to you

Come on make it quick I'm getting homesick
Sleepin in your jeans but you're only in my dreams
Don't wanna stay awake just wanna get back to you
I'll see you when I fall asleep
Sun is coming in I wanna feel your skin
Kiss me till I drown fuck I want it right now
Don't wanna stay awake just wanna get back to you
I'll see you when I fall asleep
