

The Rembrandts, Eloise

Yesterday , I was all alone
Nobody called on the telephone
Yeh I was down but...now things are changin'
I met a girl with a 45
Drive in sister, hunky dory eyes
Satellite of love
Infatuation
So put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you, for who you are
Eloise
You always say what I wanna hear
Speak the truth and it's loud and clear
Oh yeh you lifted me up from my desolation
I won't be lookin' the other way
At pretty things that may pass my way
I've straight ahead now with no complications
So put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you, for who you are
Eloise
Well I don't know what I'm doin' but I know that I ain't doin' without you
'Cause I know what I believe in and I know that I ain't leavin' without you
Eloise
So put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pockefull of stars
I love you for who you are
Eloise
Yeh put your suitcase in my car
Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you for who you are
Eloise
Now Eloise
