

The Rembrandts, In The Back Of Your Mind

Well she would never say she loved me, but this I somehow knew
There'd come a day she'd leave me lonely, as I was sure the sky is blue
By the time I woke the mornin', she was already up and gone

YOU'RE IN MY EVERY MEMORY

AND I WONDER IS IT ME, THAT YOU SEE

IN THE BACK OF YOUR MIND

IN THE BACK OF YOUR MIND

And though she's lost to me forever, our secret will remain

There in the nights we spent together, on earth we're bound by love in vain

Til the sky above has fallen, we'll be together once again

(CHORUS)

And when the sky above has fallen, we'll be together once again

(CHORUS)

In the back of your mind

In the back of your mind

In the back of your mind
