

The Rembrandts, The Deepest End

Here I go, trustin' someone new
After all that I've been through
You'd think that I'd know better
Should've known, you'd only meet me half the way
I'm runnin' out of things to say
Let's talk about the weather
I THOUGHT YOU WERE AN ISLAND, WHERE I COULD HARBOR ALL MY SINS
AND NOW I'M STRANDED IN THE DEEPEST END
Where were you, when the candlelights went out?
Beyond the shadow of a doubt
I can read you to the letter
Watchful eyes, lookin' out for someone else
If you could keep them to yourself
Maybe then you'd know me better
(CHORUS)
And I don't want no one else-I'm gonna stay here by myself
Should I believe my heart or you-And what if I do?
What if I do?
(CHORUS)
Now I'm stranded in the deepest end
Now I'm stranded in the deepest end
Yes I am...stranded in the deepest end
Yeh I'm stranded in the deepest end
Oh I'm stranded..Yeh I'm stranded in the deepest end
