

The Rembrandts, Woman You've Become

You use to drive me crazy
Well you were in my way and I did not have the time
But now I'm crazy
In love with you-I guess I changed my mind
My world has come undone
By the woman you've become
Oh yeh...by the woman you've become
Oh oh yeh...by the woman you've become
I never use to want you
Yeh I had better things to do and I did not care
If I should hurt you
But now the thought is something I can't bear
My world has come undone
By the woman you've become
Oh yeh...by the woman you've become
Oh oh yeh...by the woman you've become
To _____ I'm feelin'
No you don't keep me waitin'
No you don't keep me waitin' around
Now my world has come undone
By the woman you've be...
Now my world has come undone
By the woman you've be...
Now my world has come undone
By the woman you've become
Oh yeh...by the woman you've become
Oh oh yeh...by the woman you've become
Oh yeh...by the woman you've become
Oh oh yeh
