

The Replacements, Someone Take The Wheel

Rip out the table
We need room to move
In a life unstable
You're so easily amused
Anywhere you hang
Yourself is home
Throw in a tape, fix the tone

Someone take the wheel
And I don't know where we're going
Anybody say what you feel
Back home I guess it's still snowin'

The windows are dirty, let's hope it rains
Add another newspaper
Something to do with my change
I see we're fighting again in some fuckin' land
Throw in another tape man

Someone take the wheel
And I don't know where we're going
Anybody say what you feel
Everybody's sad, but nobody's showin'

Show me one night
Kiss until I'm tired
Show me one night
Show

The music is pounding
Out in that rain
And we're standing in the shadow
Forever on the brink
Turn it up so I don't have to think

Someone take the wheel
And I don't care where we're going
Anybody say what you feel
Everybody's sad, but nobody's showin'

Someone take the wheel
Someone take the wheel
