

The Riverdales, I Don't Wanna Go To The Party

I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I'll stay at home and watch the runway lights
cause I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I know that everyone will be there but this time I really don't care
cause I don't wanna go to the party tonight

I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I'll stay at home and watch the runway lights
cause I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I know that everyone will be there
cause I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I know my ex girlfriend will be there Kissing kissing in front me as if I care I don't care
I don't wanna go to the party tonight
Don't wanna tango under the disco lights cause
I don't wanna go to the party tonight
Johnny and frank and the king will be there.
But they wont miss me so I don't care cause
I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I'll stay at home and watch the runway lights
cause I don't wanna go to the party tonight
I know that everyone will be there
cause I don't wanna go to the party tonight
