

The Rocket Summer, So much love

Hats need a beat, like awake needs asleep
Like a pen needs a page, to re-write you need a mistake
Oh, yeah
Hearts need a mind, like a clock needs the time
Like white needs black, if you leave I hope you need to come back
Oh, i swear, i know, i believe it
Oh, i can't stop hearing all the singing
Oh, my soul has never had this feeling and it feels like gold
You got so much love in you
You got so much love in you
I'm amazed that I'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs that I've heard my whole life coming true
Strike all the bells, hit 'em hard make 'em all yell
Celebrate that you made, lock us up yeah incarcerate oh!
Oh, i swear, i know, i believe it
Oh, i can't stop hearing all the singing
and it feels like so, so
So much love in you
You got so much love in you
I'm amazed that I'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs that I've heard my whole life coming true
You got so much love in you
You got so much love in you
I'm amazed that I'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs oh, oh, oh, oh
Yeah, oh, c'mon, yeah..
ahh..
You got so much love in you
You got so much love in you
I'm amazed that I'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs that I've heard my whole life coming true
[x3]
You got so much love in you
You got so much love in you
I'm amazed that I'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs oh, oh, oh, oh..
