

The Ronettes, I Wonder

Mama said before I'm grown
I'll find somebody I can call my own
So when the stars are shining bright
I dream about the boy who's gonna hold me tight

And I wonder, wonder who he'll be
Oh I wonder, wonder who he'll be
Will he be good to me
Wonder, wonder who he'll be
Wonder if he'll love me forever and ever

Everynight, I close my eyes
And there is something that I visualize
I hear a voice say I love you
I picture all the things that we're gonna do

And I wonder, wonder who he'll be
Oh and I wonder, wonder who he'll be
Will he be good to me
Wonder, wonder who he'll be
Wonder if he'll love me forever and ever

I hope we'll never make each other cry
I pray we'll never ever say goodbye
Oh-----

Yes and I wonder, wonder who he'll be
Yes and I wonder, wonder who he'll be
Will he be good to me
Oh wonder, wonder who he'll be
Wonder if he'll love me forever and ever

Wonder, wonder who he'll be (repeat and fade)
