

THE ROOKLES, Lost The Way

Way to many people to forget
Ending every night with no regret
All this time I never wondered why
Always thought tomorrow was a lie

All this time
Was I so wrong
For so long
Tell me now where I belong

Somebody stop me cause I missed my wave
Lost the way
Now I know every day
Is gonna be slowin' down
All my life
I can see how every single minute's passing by

There was no-one that I couldn't break
Now I realize all my mistakes
Sudden wind has blown away my flame
Am I only one that I should blame?

Someone tells me: "You can rise and shine
You will be alright with morning sun"

Somebody stop me cause I missed my wave
Lost the way
Now I know every day
Is gonna be slowin' down
All my life
I'll just wait and see
And see
And see
