

The Rounder Girls, All To You (Eurovision 2000)

I never was the one to carry on, but everything is different, since you came along.
In the middle of something special, I never felt this way before, and now I need a little time, to understand a little more.
I can't explain the way you made me feel (made me feel), or the moment that my heart began to re
You took me in a new direction, you're showing me a different way (different way),
and I'm in a situation,
I will be the one to say: Why don't you take me, my baby?
Hold me for all time, and never leave me, believe me. Let me be your one and only.
Love me like you do, and let me give my lovin' all to you. Oh, yeah
Now I know it's love and that's a fact (that's a fact).
There's no return there is no going back (no, no, no, no).
It might be the way you make me crazy; you always take my breath away.
And now there's only one thing baby, that there's left for me to say:
Why don't you take me, my baby?
Hold me for all time, and never leave me, believe me.
I will always be by your side, always on my mind. My baby, take me!
And everything I feel is from the bottom of my heart, yeah.
I'll give you everything I have; I'll give you what you never had!
Why don't you take me, my baby?
Hold me for all time, and never leave me, believe me, I will always be by your side.
Always on my mind; you take what's wrong and make it right
I really need you, to feel you, wrap me in your arms,
Surround me sweetly, completely. Let me be your one and only.
Love me like you do, just let me give my lovin' all to you
Just let me give my lovin' all to you! Ooh, ooh, ooh!
