

The RZA, Deadly Venoms

(Prince Rakeem talking)

Yo here we go yo

The Prince Rakeem, this here is called my deadly venom

You know what I'm sayin?

Some old freestyle type of slick slang

For you and your gang

Girls so ya'll can kinda sweat this

Check it out and ya' don't quit

Verse 1:

And many brothers know me for what?

My bag of bitches

But I'm also known for giving stitches

A buck 50 for those who get nifty

That's why your ass so fast to call me swifty

And here I go and here I go

Hey yo go out like Bo and act like ya' know

That ya' can't beat me or bring me

The least bit of harm

Sssss, um um, uh uh

Heck no, I keep a sucker brain petrified

When I grab the mic I won't let go, I'd

Rather go live forever and ever and ever

Let it go? Never

Assume a lot of boys are doomed

Without being tuned

To many many many moons

As the champ that blast through your amp

I can't get weak cause my style can't cramp

I'm rugged like Guess black denim

Battles ya'll know I always ran 'em

When it comes to rappers, they're seeds

I'll plant 'em

As I eject ya' wit' a dose of deadly venom

This is the way I like to parle

And amputate to the words I say

The tormentor, take you on a mad adventure

Through an episode that's cold like the winter

Check your checklist

And see if you can wreck this

You thought I was a lover

And didn't expect this

Style I specify but now you can testify

Thee not a less the best is I

Deadly Venoms

Deadly Venoms kid

Check it out yo

Verse 2:

No time for charades or masquerades

It's more rugged shit with the kid with braids

And I like brothers to step up and show what they got

And watch 'em drop on the spot

And pop the corns

Just raw like crumbs from my tongue

Cause you're small like Tom Thumb

But I'm great, up to date and elevate

Rhymes I design

I write with paper mate

I stimulate your thoughts

Can't take shorts

Won every battle that I ever fought

So friend or foe

Who want to go toe to toe?
Yo you know you're gonna fall below
Zero don't try to play hero
Like um, Robert DeNiro and Crazy Shapiro
But I exempt not to be a wimp
I walk with a limp of a Roscoe pimp
I'm a slickster
Who's out to get your sister
You disagree with me? Fuck you mister
So uncanny brothers can't stand me
I'll take the panties from your mammy and your granny
Rap crusader, bam boom invader
Sex capader and also a panty raider
So protect your property
'Cause when it comes to baggin' girls
No one is stopping me
Or getting rid of me
I'm the epitome
Even cold fuck the statue of liberty
That's the way that I am though
Yea Rakeem wit' a rugged deadly venom (venom)

Yea check it the deadly venom (venom)
Word, the deadly venom kid
Yea a deadly venom (venom)

Verse 3:
Suckers step to me and think they can do me
Your style is screwy like Hong Kong Fuey
You can't push me, rush or mush me
Dust or crush, or even ambush me
'Cause I'll play ya' right out of position
See through your mission with x-ray vision
And once I see ya' I get Scrooge like Ebenezer
Crush ya' like black Caesar
After that I'll leave ya'
Hit 'em wit' a symptom of Rakeem fever
You get strung, hung, swung
Done, by a witty rap tongue
>From a young man who understood
What it takes to be good
Make a rhyme sound like it should
Susa I'm makin' this style looser
I turn men to stone like Medusa
You get blown and thrown off course
Feel the remorse
You're forced to take a loss
I get crazier
Slay ya' like Hell Raiser
Style amaze ya' I'm rugged like a trail blazer
Then I crash right through your
Lyrics I sued 'em
They're moving like U-Haul
Booming 'em, doing 'em, wrap 'em
Like aluminum fo-o-oil
Your plans got spoiled
Rhymes will affect ya'
Who loves to wreck ya'?
I laugh in your face like I'm Woody Woodpecker
(mocks Woody Woodpecker's laugh)
You can't get with the Ra'
Deadly venom

Word, Know what I'm sayin?
The Prince Rakeem strikes again

Never hit below the belt although the blow is felt
I wanna say peace to the DMD posse
And the gladiator posse
And the whole Staten Island posse
And the funky president Mel Kwan
