

The Saturdays, Crashing Down

Yeah I talked it out with a friend of mine
Looks like I'm gonna lose your love this time
She said I've cheated on you for too long
And don't I realise I ain't that strong

Bridge

But now the nights are so cold and lonely
Lost without all your love

Chorus

I come crashing down, down, down
Crashing down, down, down
Crashing down, down, down
Like a stone to the ground

I come crashing down, down, down
Crashing down, down, down

Now your love ain't around

Woah, I ain't a child, no tears to hide
All my emotions heading deep inside
With you I really thought I had it all

One day you're high then you take a fall

Bridge

But now the nights are so cold and lonely
Lost without all your love

Chorus

I come crashing down, down, down
Crashing down, down, down
Crashing down, down, down
Like a stone to the ground

I come crashing down, down, down
Crashing down, down, down

Now your love ain't around

Wanting you

loving you

Leaving you

Loosing my baby

Cheated you

Lied to you

Now i'm crashing down

Chorus x2
