

The Scenic, Are You Down?

Stay, for awhile now
At least pretend
There's something more
Between the two of us
Deep secrets, if we must Say, I didn't catch your name
So delicate, yet interested
In anything you say
When you look at me that way, you got me
This is never said, it's understood
You are the perfect compliment
This is the first time and the last time
I will ever keep you here in waiting
For the story to begin
Love is the slightest touch
If this was bliss, man, I'm ready
I hear the sparks fly
Hit the marker
Everything that drives me wild
Surprise, oh it's so right
Yeah
This is never said, it's understood
You are the perfect compliment
This is the first time and the last time
I will ever keep you here in waiting
For the story to begin
If I could only breathe you in just one last time
I'm falling deeper, deeper now
Are you down?
Yes, I'm so down
Are you down?
Cause I'm down with you, too
This is never said, it's understood
You are the perfect compliment
This is the first time and the last time
I will ever keep you here in waiting
For the story to begin
Ever keep you here in waiting
