

The Scenic, Notice Me

Today I feel like I'm beside myself
Cause girl you get to me like no one else
I got a secret only eyes could tell
Cause girl you get to me like no one else
And oh, you're mine
Just for tonight
Maybe
Maybe something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
I'm certain
How I want to spend my days with you
Girl, I need you, only if you knew
I watch you from your bedroom
I'm liking what I see
I hold my breath to keep you close to me
And oh, you're mine
Just for tonight
Maybe, maybe, something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
Of this, I'm certain
I'm certain
It's in the way you notice me
It's in the way you notice me
Maybe, something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
I'm certain
Maybe something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
Of this, I'm certain
Maybe something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
Of this, I'm certain
Maybe, something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
I'm certain
Maybe something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
I'm certain
Maybe something else could change my mind
I know I'm not always right
I'm certain
I'm certain
So certain
