The Shins, Gone For Good

Untie me, I've said no vows The train is getting way too loud I gotta leave here my girl Get on with my lonely life

Just leave the ring on the rail For the wheels to nullify

Until this turn in my head I let you stay and you paid no rent I spent twelve long months on the lam

That's enough sitting on the fence For the fear of breaking dams

I find a fatal flaw In the logic of love And go out of my head

You love a sinking stone That'll never elope So get used to the lonesome Girl, you must atone some Don't leave me no phone number there

It took me all of a year To put the poison pill to your ear But now I stand on honest ground, on honest ground

You want to fight for this love But honey you cannot wrestle a dove So baby it's clear

You want to jump and dance But you sat on your hands And lost your only chance

Go back to your hometown Get your feet on the ground And stop floating around

I find a fatal flaw In the logic of love And go out of my head

You love a sinking stone That'll never elope So get used to used to the lonesome Girl, you must atone some Don't leave me no phone number there
