

The Shirelles, Till My Baby Comes Home

Not sure girl, been gone for long long still & now the Romeos are knocking & ringin' my bell
They just keep hangin' around
Steady to right to break me down

CHORUS:

Oh but their ain't gonna be no love
No no no no no no no no
There ain't gonna be no love
Till my baby comes home

Temptation comes creeping into my mind

I'm only human & I'm feelin' weak sometimes
When you're waitin' for a special guy
You wanted to trust & satisfy

(chorus)

(scat singing by backup; Shirley sings too soft here to be discernable)

(repeat chorus & fade)
