

The Simpsons, Your Wife Don't Understand You

You work all day
For some old man
Sweat and break your back (uh huh)
Then you go back to your castle
But your queen won't cut you slack (that's true)
That's why you're losing all your hair
That's why you're overweight (uh huh)
That's why you flipped your pick- up truck
Right off the inner state (That's right!
Except for the pick- up truck)
Now, you talk so tough and act so rough
But darlin' you can't hide
The heartache and the sadness
That's buried deep inside
There's a lot of bull they hand you
There's nothin' you can do
Your wife don't understand you
But I do
Your wife don't understand you
But I do

I said noone understands but I dooooo!
