The Smile, We Don’t Know What Tomorrow Bring

It's a terrible shame
It's a terrible shame, I know
It's a brutal game
Gonna have to let you go
I'm stuck in a rut
Can't find my way out
And the sides are closing in

We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings

It's a terrible shame
And the grass is always green
Get it while you can
Or get sad and then get mean
I'm stuck in a rut
In flat land drainage ditch
And I'm drowning
In irrelevance

We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know what tomorrow brings
We don't know
