The Spencer Davis Group, It Hurts Me So

Sometimes I feel so worried
Sometimes I feel so sad
Thinking about my baby and the good times we had

You know it hurts me so, hurts me so,
And I never wanted to let you go

Sometimes I feel so worried
Sometimes I feel so blue
Thinking 'bout my baby and the things we used to do

You know it hurts me so, hurts me so,
And I never wanted to let you go

When you see me all alone you know

That you never wanted to let me go
But it's too late now
It doesn't matter how
I tried to get you back again

Sometimes I feel so worried
Sometimes I feel so blue
Thinking 'bout my baby and the things we used to do

You know it hurts me so, hurts me so,
And I never wanted to let you go

Oh!
Let you go, baby
I never wanted to let you go
