

The Spencer Davis Group, Together Till The End

In a world filled with so much sorrow
Every one is thinking of himself
So little time is spent on planning for tomorrow
No one really seems to care
It's so easy to be lost in a land
Where no one wants to help you, no one understands

But we'll hold hands together
And we'll make our plans together
Till the end of time, darling
Till the end of time, my sweet darling

By your side I'll always be
Though things be good or bad
From now until eternity
I'll do anything I can
To make you happy when you're feeling blue

Should you ever have to leave me, I'll be waiting for you

Then we'll hold hands forever
And we'll make our plans together
Till the end of time, darling
Till the end of time, my sweet darling

I'll make you happy when you're feeling blue
Should you ever have to leave me, I'll be waiting for you

Then we'll hold hands together
Darling for ever and ever, oh
Till the end of time, oh darling
Till the end of time, my sweet darling
Till the end of time, I know I'm gonna love you for ever and ever
Oh darling, oh darling for ever and ever
