The Stanley Brothers, Death Is Only A Dream

Sadly we sing and with tremulous breath As we stand by the mystical stream In the valley and by the dark river of death And yet 'tis no more than a dream

Only a dream, only a dream
Of glory beyond the dark stream
How peaceful the slumber, how happy the waking
Where death is only a dream

Why should we weep when the weary ones rest In the bosom of Jesus supreme In the mansions of glory prepared for the blessed For death is no more than a dream

Naught in the river the Saints should appall Though' it frightfully dismal may seem In the arms of our Savior no ill can befall They find it no more than a dream

Over the turbid and onrushing tide Doth the light of eternity gleam And the ransomed the darkness and storm shall out ride To wake with glad smiles from their dream
