The Stanley Brothers, I Only Exist

No I'm not living I only exist How much longer can I go on like this You broke my heart and tortured my mind I've lost you darling you're long gone this time

My home is broken you wrecked my young life You left me here alone to cry These tears that are flowing will soon dry away And some day darling I know you will pay

I knew you were no good right from the start My friends all told me you'd break my heart When your roaming and rambling days are through You'll pray for a love like I had for you
