

The Stanley Brothers, Our Last Goodbye

Oh the nights are lonely here without you
All I see is grief and pain
For another's love you treasure
All my hopes are now in vain

For I love you as no other
Though you've gone far away
Will you ever think my darling
Of our last goodbye today

I often dream of you my darling
You looked so sweet and smiled at me
And though another's arms may hold you
Those two blue eyes I long to see

Now if you ever need me darling
Don't forget to drop a line
My heart will be with you my darling
Won't you think of me sometime
