

The Starting Line, Classic Jazz

Lights come on from neighbors woken up and the flash is our cue for the dash to the car to the back

(Chorus:)

We were floating in your room to the songs of classic jazz flowing all night long. As fast as we're lea

Lighten up cause its summer and we're just having fun. We're too young to be out-running and duc

I'm floating

(Chorus)

Static..there's nothing but static prograded by popular demand....and then a light appeared directly

(Chorus)

I'm flying from your room to the sun with classic jazz still spilling from my lungs.