

The Starting Line, Somebody's Gonna Miss Us

If this is worth my time,
Then I'll be here for a while.
If this is worth your while,
Then you're making me smile.
If S-I-L-Y-M-I still is all you want,
Then I'm not sure how much in common we've got.
If you think you've had enough...

Somebody's gonna miss us when nobody's here for this song.
Somebody's gonna miss out when nobody's in the club.

Cause this is no attempt to abandon anyone.
It is the influence of the music we love.
Well, if you can't relate and refuse to sing along,
Then maybe I can interest you in some other song.
A little something like "All That She Wants Is Another Baby";

Somebody's gonna miss us when nobody's here for this song.
Somebody's gonna miss out when nobody's in the club.

Well, oh my...
If it's gonna take time
It's gonna mean that all of my,
All of my mistakes are gonna be solved,
Never gonna be great.

Somebody's gonna miss us when nobody's here for this song.
Somebody's gonna miss out when nobody's in the club.
Somebody's gonna miss us when nobody's here,
Here for this song.
Man, I hope they will.
Somebody's gonna miss out when nobody's in.
