

The Starting Line, Way With Words

There seems to be no difference,
Between present tense and the pretense.
Cause it's all a part of what you've been trying to say.
Well you've got all the right reasons
To write red hot rants for the weekend,
But they're not a part of what you've been trying to say.

They say you lost your way.
(You're way with words)
The right way to go.

You've lost your way with words or at least that's what I heard.
You've lost your way with words and to me what could be worse?
What could be worse?

When your father passed down his wisdom,
Sometimes I think he must've spilled some
Cause you lost the sight of what you've been trying to say.
And I know that nobody's perfect,
Well no one would want to sound desperate
Unless that's a part of what you've been trying to say.

You've lost your way with words or at least that's what I heard.
You've lost your way with words and to me what could be worse?
What could be? What could be worse?

Oh, you could dance around.
Dance around with nothing to say.

You've lost your way with words at least that's what I heard.
You've lost your way with words.

You've lost your way with words or at least that's what I heard.
You've lost your way with words and to me..
Yeah to me to me to me...
What could be worse?
