

The Stills, Gender Bombs

brains on a brick wall when gender bombs they fall the sordid way her loaded phrases infiltrate your skull the images are strong impulses are strong and logic will break your heart forever be brave

massive suicide dreams
the feel warm and long
the girl will school you the girl will...

could this be the gaining force of ten loves in a row drunken sunday evenings will just be innuendos

that feel warm and long
the girl will screw you
