The Story So Far, Things I Can't Change

This twitch in my fingers Love/hate it lingers Sent it direct, but the point must have missed her Gave up and lost, cause of timing and pressure And now I?m gone

Lie alone it's all you can do now And hear me drone About the things I can?t change Lie alone it's all you can do now And hear me, hear me drone on my own

What has this come to? I know you don?t see me as much you ought to And both wounds are bleeding out Grace me with nothing but patience I?II admit that I hate this if there?s no other way out (There's no other way out)

Lie alone it's all you can do now And hear me drone About the things I can?t change Lie alone it's all you can do now And hear me, hear me drone on my own

On the outs with everything
The calm and talk you seldom bring /3x

Lie alone it's all you can do now And hear me drone About the things I can?t change Lie alone it's all you can do now And hear me, hear me drone on my own
