

The Style Council, Love Pains

Oh I think it's too late baby
Oh I think it's too late again
Trying to look back over my shoulder
I could see my past oh so clear
And I remember how, how I used to hold her
Oooh it makes me wish that she was here

Too many love pains
Jealous inside
Too many love pains
Too many scars for us to hide
Too many love pains just because of foolish pride

I can't turn back, now my hands are tied
I just try to look ahead - instead of behind
I don't know where I went wrong
I just know that it's too late for us to carry on
Too many love pains
Jealous inside
Too many love pains
Too many scars for us to hide
Too many love pains just because of foolish pride
