

The Subways, Kalifornia

Start the fires
Let the world know they're invited
I will fight it
And I will never be defeated

If you see Kalifornia
You will know it's been waiting for ya

Tell the liars
They will never be believers
I will fight them
And you will never be defeated

If you see Kalifornia
You will know it's been waiting for ya
Do you feel the paranoia?
You will know it's been waiting for ya

Do you feel the paranoia?
You will know it's been waiting for ya

If you see Kalifornia
You will know it's been waiting for ya
Do you feel the paranoia?
You will know it's been waiting for ya
