

The Subways, Street Fighter

C-C-C-Choose the only choice, there's a connection
My heart responds to a lonely voice without protection
Under the street light we can see our only shadow
For only you and me can see because we all know
They wanna start a fight with me
Yeah, the war is over
There's nothing left to hide
So what are you scared for?
So what are you scared for?
C-C-C-Change the way you feel if you believe it
Sarcastic cynicals ain't so decieving
Under the spotlight we can see the bureocratics
Ain't got the ... to change a thing
They think ...
Or wanna start a fight with me
Yeah, the war is over
So what are you scared for?
So what are you scared for?
So what are you scared for now?
We're taking over
There's no ... or fine
So what are you scared for?
