

The Subways, Under Fire

deep in the night i see your smile that melts into a dream my ruthless mind feels easy when I lay beside youi

thoughts of the day
are drifting away
like a cry without a pain then morning comes around and youre gone

you are the pain
Im under fire
you know the pain
Im under fire-under fire

now I am alone
and Im thinking of you
a face without a smile
thats all

so lonely as I fight
through all day
as darkness approaches
I hear voices say

you are the pain
Im under fire
you know the pain
Im under fire
