

The Sugarcubes, Leash Called Love

Bjrk

You love him

You want to make him happy

He loves you

He wants to humiliate you

He's a bastard!

You should leave him!

Paranoid manipulator,

To hell with him.

He's dragging you

Along..

On a leash called love.

He controls you.

You should do him in

Before he gets to you.

Watch out girl.

He's dragging you

Along...

On a leash called love.

Einar

You have torn me, inside out.

Nothing but, a nervous wreck.

You have got me, on a leash,

You whip me with, a leash called love...

I've lost all sense of direction, you make me a victim

To your friends' nasty remarks, and I don't know how

I survive, I can no longer

Distinguish from, right or wrong,

Sane insane, whip me back,

Back and forth, paranoid.

Leash called love...
