

The Summer Obsession, Death Said

I took a walk outside to think about my life and what it means
I heard a voice, I made a choice, I'll be everything I could be

Death said, &quot;Ready, you might go, you never know how...&quot;
Upsetting, I know, I'm here to let you down
Something's waiting for you around the corner, it's true...&quot;
Death said, &quot;You might go, you never know who...&quot;

I wasted time, I faced my crime, I went too long not caring
The oxygen I'm taking in, I'm taking seriously

Death said, &quot;Ready, you might go, you never know how...&quot;
Upsetting, I know, I'm here to let you down
Something's waiting for you around the corner, it's true...&quot;
Death said, &quot;You might go, you never know who...&quot;

Death said, &quot;You never know who...&quot;

I can hear it coming over me,
I can hear it calling out to me,
And I never will forget...

Death said, &quot;Ready, you might go, you never know how...&quot;
Upsetting, I know, I'm here to let you down
Something's waiting for you around the corner, it's true...&quot;
Death said, &quot;You might go, you never know who...&quot;

Death said, &quot;You never know who...&quot;
