The Supremes, Treat Me Nice John Henry

(William " Smokey" Robinson)

John Henry was born
At the crack of dawn
His mama named Henry
And a daddy named John
His daddy predicted that
While John was growin'
He would be wild
Like the wind that was blowin'

That morn he was born
Was a hurricane
Thunder and lightning
And pouring rain
He's exciting to see
Like the storm he was born in
He took my heart and soul
Without a warning

So treat me nice Don't be mean, John Henry Make the girl's faces green with envy And I'm gonna give you All the love that's in me John Henry, John Henry

Oh, rock of a man You're thrillin' me I'll take your hand So willingly Ready to go Wherever you lead me Long as I know You'll always need me

Oh, Johnny, you are my hero Without you my life is a zero So whether I'm happy or in misery In your arms is where I have to be now

So treat me nice Don't be mean, John Henry Make the girl's faces green with envy And I'm gonna give you All the love that's in me John Henry, John Henry

Henry, you know You've got me goin' My love for you Keeps growing and a growing

Treat me nice
Don't be mean, John Henry
Make the girl's faces green with envy
And I'm gonna give you
All the love that's in me
John Henry, John Henry

Treat me nice Don't be mean, John Henry
