

The Sweet, Medusa

I am looking down
On Athena's claims of fate
I am looking down
Turn my golden hair to snakes

Yes, are you coming to see me
Can you see me now
Yes, are you coming to see me
Look at me now

Oh, let my myth surround the twilight zone
Those who gaze upon me turn to stone
Turn away before YOU turn to stone
Medusa, Medusa

Shining like a star
Through Minerva's mirrored shield
Flashing like a star
Saw the sword my fate was sealed

Yes, are you coming to see me
Can you see me now
Yes, are you coming to see me
Look at me now

Oh, take my head the horror's just begun
Snakes alive my gaze will make you stone
Turn away before YOU turn to stone
Medusa, Medusa

Yes - yes, are you coming to see me
Can you see me now
Yes, are you coming to see me
Look at me now

Oh, take my head the horror's just begun
Snakes alive my gaze will make you stone
Turn away before YOU turn to stone
Medusa
