

The Sweet, White Mice

Connolly/Priest/Scott/Tucker

Sweet woman, you know you're gonna give me the shakes
You know it's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright
Oh, baby turn your back on me
Oh yeah, your back on me tonight
Yeah, it's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright

White mice
Into your head
Out of my head
Gonna be alright (be alright)
It's gonna be alright (be alright)
It's gonna be alright (be alright)

Pretty baby, gonna drive me wild tonight
You know it's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright
Oh honey, gonna spend my money
Oh yeah, I'm gonna spend my money on you
I said it's gonna be alright
You know it's gonna be alright

White cat
Into my head
Out of my head
It's gonna be alright (be alright)
It's gonna be alright (be alright)
It's gonna be alright (be alright)

Gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright

Dear lover, gonna make you spread tonight
You know it's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright
Oh baby, gonna paste your face
Oh yeah, face to face with you
It's gonna be alright
You know it's gonna be alright

White light
Into my height
I saw the light
It's gonna be alright...
