

The Swellers, Good Luck (Schwag's Song)

I only found comfort in feline friends
But who would've thought that
I'd need a cat scan
Irony and unfortunate
Iconic when on life support
So I feel the sting and I hold my breath
The IV is burning,
I couldn't have guessed
Everything in my life would feel like a mess...
I'm not crazy,
I swear my view is hazy,
I'm aware all I want is to feel normal again
All I want is to feel normal again
You are what you eat
But don't make me a vegetable
Let me live and breathe I'm not meant for the hospital
Well I should keep going even though rough times,
I'm growing
It's the bigger picture that I can't forget
It's the bigger picture that I can't forget
I'm not crazy, I swear my view is hazy,
I'm aware all I want is to feel normal again
All I want is to feel normal again...
