

The Tea Party, Heaven Coming Down

With nothing to do you'd waste away
Obscured in exile
They've witnessed the times
You've gone astray
Whose fault, now you're thinking...

Ahhhhh
There's nothing to prove
Snapshot from the crowd
To the shore baby

And it feels now
Just like heaven's coming down

So strange are the ways,
They all have changed
Still life it stayed the same
A break from the past
Could make it last
Maybe just a little longer

Now there's nothing to prove
Snapshot from the crowd
To the shore baby...

And it feels now
Just like heaven's coming down
Your soul shakes free
As its conscience hits the ground

You surrender
Love under will
Rest assured baby you're adored

Oooooooooo
And it feels now
Just like heaven's coming down
Your soul shakes free
As its conscience hits the ground

These signs this fate
Takes a path you didn't choose
Stay strong keep faith
There's a change that's coming through

Feels like heaven's coming down (hold on my love hold on...)
