

The Tea Party, The Halcyon Days

Alone, left here in dust
Amidst my fears and doubts
Life's shattered dreams I could have Gone without
Now chthonic life has set its sights on
Making me a slave to its ways
I wait for return
Until then my soul it burns
And it burns only for you...

I'll be with you soon...

Night it falls on me endlessly
And i search for you in this blindness
I'm a prodigy of lust and loss
'till sleep comes down

I can't explain, this disdain remains
This treason i can't reason
They left me here for dead my dear
Barely breathing, but i'm still breathing

Now i see a light
It's shining from above
I think they've finally come
The halcyon days

I'm crawling now up
Towards the sound
Vengeance moves so swiftly
I've conquered fear
I've shed my tears
Now i'm seething, barely breathing

Now i see a light
Shining from above
I think they've finally come
The halcyon days
