

The Tea Party, Wishing You Would Stay

I don't know what it is but I know that I need it
A thousand things and a kiss and the chance I'll deceive it

I can't stand no more
I won't stand no more
I can't stand it anymore

I can't stand no more
I won't stand no more
I can't stand no more
I won't stand no more
I can't stand it anymore

I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
And help me find my way love
"You are not lost my love"
I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
I'm trying to break the chains of...
"There's no prison here"

Beyond ourselves lessons learned
And the space that's between us
A thousand things and a kiss
And the chance it deceives us

I can't stand no more
I won't stand no more
I can't stand it anymore

I can't stand no more
I won't stand no more
I can't stand no more
I won't stand no more
I can't stand it anymore

I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
And help me find my way love
"You are not lost my love"
I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
I'm trying to break the chains of...
"There's no prison here"
Wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
I try to find my way
"You are not lost my love"

And I know yo feel it hurts us now
Like a thorn beneath a rose
But it stays within
Without us girl
There's nothing more

I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
And help me find my way love
"You are not lost my love"
I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
I'm trying to break the chains of...
"There's no prison here"

I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
And help me find my way love
"You are not lost my love"
I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
I'm trying to break the chains of...
"There's no prison here"

I'm wishing you would stay
"I am not far away"
I'm trying to break the chains of...
"There's no prison here"
