

The Teenagers, Love No

You're always like, why do you have to see your friends so often?
Are they more important than me?
You spend so much time on your computer, but you shouldn't.
Because your eyes are getting red.
Or maybe it's the (inflation sound) whatever.
Are you really going to eat that pepperoni pizza? It's looks so greasy.
And your bathroom? It's worse that disgusting.

Chorus:

I'm not in love,
I'm not in love,
With you.

I'm not in love,
I'm not in love,
With you.

But it's a jealous thing with you.

I'm not in love oh oh.

But it's a jealous thing with you.

I'm not in love oh oh.

Also you have to stop seeing your ex
Because basically she's your ex right?

You party too much! No wonder you're always tired.

What about that movie Show Girls,
I can't believe you are watching it again!

You have already seen it like fifteen times.

Please come for dinner with me and Jen.

It would be great, because we are so funny!

And for God's sake, stop smoking all the time!

You know what? This morning I woke up,
And I saw your angry face.

And I'm just wondering, are you in love?

Are you in love?

Are you in love?

(repeated)

Chorus

I'm not in love,
I'm not in love,
With you.

I'm not in love,
I'm not in love,
With you.

But it's okay to stay with you.

I'm not in love oh oh.

But it's okay to stay with you.

I'm not in love oh oh.

I'm not in love,
I'm not in love,
With you.

I'm not in love,
I'm not in love,
With you.

But it's okay to stay with you.

I'm not in love oh oh.

But it's okay to stay with you.

I'm not in love oh oh.
