

The Temptations, How He Could Hurt You

Listen
Baby I know
That you really think he loves you
And it would hurt you so
If you knew the thing that I knew baby
Cause I see the things
That he does behind your back
And I ask myself
How can he treat you like that
Cause if I had your love
I'd never let you go
And I just don't know

[Chorus:]
How could he hurt you?
(How could he hurt you?)
How could he treat you so bad?
(How could he treat you so bad?)
How could he lie to you...
(How could he lie to you?)
And have the nerve to say that he loves you?
How could he hurt you?
(How could he hurt you?)
How could he cheat on you...
(How could he hurt you?)
And say that he cares for you?
He don't deserve to say that he loves you

I know you think
That your love is pure and true
How long can it take
For you to see the pain he's causing you
If I had the chance
I know I'd be the perfect man
Cause he couldn't really know
What a good thing he has
If I had your love
I'd never let you go
And I just don't know

[Chorus]
He don't deserve a lady half as good as you
If I had your love I'd do the things that he won't do
He plays you for a fool cause he thinks you need him
Bu if you let me
Let me
I said I'll show you what loves about

[Chorus]
