

The Thing Things, We started nothing

No one dropped of waiting in despair
Every time I go there's no one there
So tell me where's the soul, oh! where's the soul
Submit it's all locked up, so hard to loose control
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
Wait on a new gonna bet on 1 today
How it's only all of us, if and but's falling dead
Tell me where's the soul, oh! Where's the soul
If it's been a whole day it's time to let it go
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
Now, often we keep qivin' in with what they say
We're too open when we're only shown 1 way
And with the offer open opportunity to do
To make a mighty step no insoles in my shoes
I started nothing I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
I started nothing, I wish I didn't
Water's cold, ice is just a face skin deep
All you know, ice is just a face skin deep
Water's cold, ice is just a face skin deep
All you know, ice is just a face skin deep
Water's cold, ice is just a face skin deep
All you know, ice is just a face skin deep
