

The Thorns, Now I Know

Now I know
And I'm never gonna be the same again
I looked in your heart and I saw
In my soul
I felt darkness pull

Now I can't explain
The sky only rains
Now I know

That it really can't be any other way (it can't be any other way)
I looked in your eyes and I cried
For my life
For your life
Is a lie

And I can't explain
The sky only rains
Is it me?
